

Appalachian Forest Heritage Area AmeriCorps Program

Applications are Now Open for Site Sub-Sponsors to Host AFHA AmeriCorps Members For 2019-2020 Program Year

To Qualify as an AFHA AmeriCorps site:

- Sites must be community non-profit or governmental organizations within the 16 West Virginia AFHA counties
- Project-based positions should fit in a focus area of
 - Conservation
 - OR
 - Community and heritage development
 - PLUS
 - All sites include some organizational capacity building, such as volunteer management
- Site are responsible for
 - Supervision, including recruiting and support of member and evaluation reporting,
 - Cash match of $5000 for full-time position
 - In-kind match reporting of time and expenses
- Hands On Team Sites
 - Separate application for shorter term projects
 - Historic preservation of community buildings
 - Conservation lands improvement projects

To Apply:

- Contact us at afha.appalachianforest.us or 304-636-6182 for information and application form
- New applicants should discuss your project with us to help develop an eligible application
- Applications are due by April 8, 2019, for positions starting September 5, 2019.

For previous AFHA AmeriCorps activities and recruitment
See www.appalachianforest.us/ameriCorps.htm